

Emerge Architecture Competition: 'Living Tomorrow'

BRIEF

Architecture students and designers are called to define the home of the future under the theme 'Living Tomorrow'. This is an idea-based challenge and seeks for conceptually sound proposals. The site can be of any size or form but limited to the Zimbabwean future context. The building(s) proposed can connect with various other issues that interest the participant.

Submissions should however consider (but not limited to);

Sustainability

Building technology of the future

Socio-economic factors

Cultural dynamics of the future

Environmental and agricultural influences and solutions

Spatial configuration

Choice of material

Human interaction

Aesthetics

SUBMISSION

The Emerge competition is a digital endeavour in accordance with its sustainable attitude, no hardcopy submissions will be accepted.

Competition dates are highlighted on the Emerge website.

Entrants must submit their proposals to the Emerge website by the competition deadline: www.emergecompetition.com
